

Confirmation Class—2.25.18
The Fifth Commandment

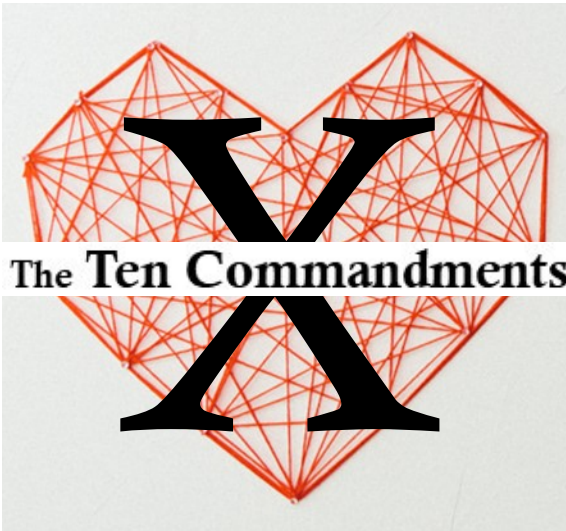

Table Group Time:

1. Take a moment to share highs and lows from the week.
2. Take time to pray for one another. Pray for joys, concerns, hopes, struggles
3. Make a list of the ways that people hurt one another:

4. Look up the following verses and write out what they teach in regards to murder:

Genesis 4:2-10 Exodus 21:28-29 Deuteronomy 22:8 2 Samuel 11:14-17

The Fifth Commandment

Do not HARM or HURT
your neighbor but
HELP
&
SUPPORT them

5. Key Point :

“We must harm no one, either with our hand or by deed. We must not use our tongue to instigate or counsel harm. We must neither use nor agree to use any means or methods by which another person may be injured. Finally, the heart must not be ill disposed toward anyone or wish another person ill in anger and hatred.” - Martin Luther

Proverbs 4:23
Philippians 4:7

Romans 12:2
Philippians 4:8

Psalms 141:3
1 Peter 3:10

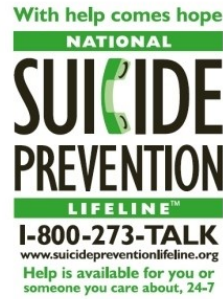

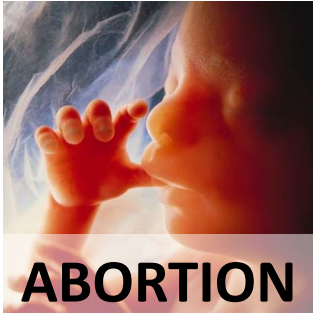

Matthew 5:22
Ephesians 4:26

Key Point :

“A person who does evil to his neighbor is not the only one guilty under this commandment. It also applies to anyone who can do his neighbor good, —(ie. prevent or resist evil, defend, and save his neighbor so that no bodily harm or hurt happen to him)—yet does not do good.”
- Martin Luther

Speak up for those who cannot speak for themselves, for all the rights of all who are destitute. Proverbs 31:8

What do these verses tell us about our responsibilities for the lives of others:

Proverbs 24:11-12

Luke 10:29-37

Look up each of the verses and write out a summary and draw an image to represent the keeping of the fifth commandment:

John 10:10

Romans 12:19-21

Ephesians 4:32
